

Bursaries

The AGDS is awarding bursaries to Namibian teacher trainees for primary and secondary levels. In return, the bursary recipients commit to teach at one of the AGDS schools for some years after completing their studies.

If you are interested in a bursary for the teaching profession, please fill out the enclosed form and return it via email or submit it to the AGDS office in person.

Requirements:

- Namibian citizenship
- Selection of subjects in the study program should include German as a subject
- Upon approval of the application, you will receive a contract and a surety form, which must be fully completed and signed.

The executive board reserves the right to accept or reject bursary applications without giving reasons.
